

Contaminated Site Remediation

Entech Industries provides specialist services in contaminated site remediation. With a wealth of experience in the field, Entech is able to handle all aspects of contaminated site remediation including:

- Contamination assessment
- Air water and ground monitoring

- Gaining regulatory approvals

Entech is also able to offer complete, turnkey solutions for almost any contaminated remediation project where the contaminants are either heavy metals organics.